St. Andrew Advent Prayer

(Said daily beginning on St. Andrew's Feast Day through the Vigil of Christmas)

Hail and blessed be the hour and the moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Blessed Virgin Mary at midnight in Bethlehem in the piercing cold. In that hour vouchsafe, O my God, to hear my prayer and grant my petitions. Through the merits of Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Advent Antiphons

(Said daily beginning the 1st Lord's Day of Advent through the Vigil of Christmas. Begin with "Daily Prayer" and then recite the prayer for the appropriate week.)

Drop down dew from above, ye heavens, and let the clouds rain the Just One. Let the earth be opened and bud forth a Savior. (Isa. 45:8)

Behold, the Lord comes and He will not lie. Should He tarry, await Him, for He shall assuredly come and shall not delay. (Antiphon)

A Child is born to us, and a Son is given to us, and the government is upon His shoulder. And His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, God the Mighty, the Father of the world to come, the Prince of Peace. (Antiphon)

Fourth Week

And thou, Bethlehem Ephrata, art a little one among the thousands of Juda. Out of thee shall He come forth unto Me that is to be the ruler in Israel. And His going forth is from the beginning, from the days of eternity. (Antiphon)

Our forerunner, Jesus, the Lamb undefiled, has entered the Holy of holies for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchisedech. He is the King of Justice, having neither beginning of days nor end of life. (Antiphon)

O Come, O Come, Emmanuel

(Sung daily beginning 12/17)

O come, O come, Emmanuel, / And ransom captive Israel, / That mourns in lonely exile here / Until the Son of God appear. Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel / Shall come to thee, O Israel.

Advent Resolutions Prayer

(Can be said on the Lord's Day each week during Advent)

O Infant Savior, the prophets of old longed for thy coming into their world, we long for thy return to our modern world – another coming of thyself and thy principles into our pagan times. Only then will we breathe in a Christian atmosphere in which joy replaces sorrow, in which love casts out darkness.

O Mary, our Mother, be our model during this holy season. Christ was alive within thee during the first Advent; we want Him to be alive within us more than ever during this Advent. May we not merely possess our precious Catholic Faith – rather, may it take complete possession of us so that wherever we go, whatever we do or say, it will be the Christ Child that inspires us.

We resolve to make our Christmas a holyday with Christ instead of a holiday without Him. We resolve to observe Christmas as the birthday of Christ, not merely as a day to give and receive merchandise. And we resolve to help at least one poor family in honor of the Holy Family of Bethlehem. Finally, we promise every day to give glory to God in the highest and to work and pray for peace on earth among men of good will. Amen.
