CITY OF TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES MUST REPENT: PART 17

People! The people are such as are born upon the soil, by whom and for whom in the first place the Government was ordained. New Mexico's Constitution Article 20 Section 1, Oaths of Office apply to all elected and appointed offices! School boards, school superintendents, school teachers, city commissioners, city boards, et cetera!

"A free people claim their rights as derived from the laws of nature, and not as the gift of their chief magistrate." -Thomas Jefferson: Rights of British America, 1774. ME 1:209, Papers 1:134.

"Natural rights are the objects for the protection of which society is formed and municipal laws established." -Thomas Jefferson to James Monroe, 1797. ME 9:422.

The people of New Mexico do not yield their sovereignty to the agencies that serve them! We the People are supreme and have the undoubted right to protect ourselves and to preserve Republican-form-of-government, in delegating authority, we do not give public servants the right to decide what is good for the people to know and what is not good for them to know! We insist to retain control over the instruments we have created.

State Constitution(s), as distinguished from the federal Constitution, does not constitute a grant of power, or an enabling act, to the legislature, but rather constitutes restrictions, to be construed strictly and are not to be extended to include matters not covered by the language used.

Got it? The document restricts what government employees are permitted to do. The employees swear an oath not to act contrary to what's written in the document. Doing so violates their oath and what they do is void. Acting beyond what the document permits is felony-trespassing-actionable-upon-them-personally! No act is "official" absent constitutional authorization.

There's a distinction between power and right. The employees of government have power, but they suspend their right to act by swearing an oath to be restricted in their conduct while on the people's clock. We crib those babies - the babies don't get to come out of the crib as long as they remain employed.

More to come!

CHRIST-DENYING JEWS HAVE NO RIGHT TO ISRAEL ON RELIGIOUS GROUNDS

God has decreed that unfaithful and grossly immoral Jews have no right to the land of Israel. Speaking for God, Moses says, "But if thou wilt not hear the voice of the Lord thy God to keep and to do all his commandments and ceremonies which I command thee this day, all these curses shall come upon thee and overtake thee... You shall be taken away from the land which thou shalt go in to possess." (Deut. 28) Hence, whenever the majority of the Jews became either unfaithful or grossly immoral, God cast them out of Israel (the Promised Land). The vast majority of Jews in current day Israel are both unfaithful and many are grossly immoral.

They are unfaithful because they do not believe Jesus Christ is the Messiah and thus do not believe in the true God, the Most Holy Trinity. Jesus says that God is not their Father, and they are sons of the Devil: "Jesus therefore said to them: If God were your Father, you would indeed love me. For from God I proceeded, and came... Why do you not know my speech? Because you cannot hear my word. You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you will do." (Jn. 8:42-44) St. John says that only those who believe in Jesus are sons of God: "He [Jesus] came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, he gave them power to be made the sons of God, to them that believe in his name." (Jn. 1:11-12) And St. John says God is not their Father, and they are antichrists: "Who is a liar, but he who denieth that Jesus is the Christ? This is Antichrist, who denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father. He that confesseth the Son hath the Father also." (1 Jn. 2:22-23)

And St. Paul says they are not spiritual children of Abraham and thus are not children of God: "Know ye therefore, that they who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham... For you are all the children of God by faith, in Christ Jesus." (Gal. 3:7, 26) St. Paul also teaches that racial Jews who deny Christ are not the children of the promise and thus not God's chosen people: "That is to say, not they that are the children of the flesh [racial Jews] are the children of God; but they that are the children of the promise [Christians] are accounted for the seed." (Rom. 9:8)

St. Paul says that apostate Jews conspire against Christians and are adversaries to all men: "Serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and temptations which befell me by the conspiracies of the Jews." (Acts 20:19) "[The Christ-denying Jews] both killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets and have persecuted us and please not God and are adversaries to all men." (1 Thes. 2:15)

The Prophet Isaiah foretold that a time would come when God's chosen people would be called by another name: "And you shall leave your name [Israel/Jew] for an execration to my elect, and the Lord God shall slay thee [in AD 70 when the Second Temple fell], and call his servants by another name." (Isa. 65:15) And that name would be Christian, "so that at Antioch the disciples were first named Christians." (Acts 11:26) There was no longer any distinction whatsoever between Jewish and Gentile believers. "For if thou confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in thy heart that God hath raised him up from the dead, thou shalt be saved... For there is no distinction of the Jew and the Greek, for the same is Lord over all, rich unto all that call upon him." (Rom. 10:9, 12) "That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs and of the same body and copartners of his promise in Christ Jesus by the gospel." (Eph. 3:6)

The sad truth is that most men from every race end up in hell, and that includes the Jewish race. So stop this racism, this idolization of the Jewish race. Men are not saved by race but by the grace of God, faith in Jesus Christ, obedience to all of God's commandments, and good works. St. Paul says, "For all have sinned, and do need the glory of God, being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus," (Rom. 3:23-24) Jesus says, "He that believeth in the Son, hath life everlasting; but he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life but the wrath of God abideth on him." (Jn. 3:36) And "If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments." (Mt. 19:17) "Not everyone that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doth the will of my Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven." (Mt. 7:21) And St. James says, "Faith without works is dead." (Jam. 2:26)

In 1904, Pius X said the following to Theodor Herzl, "We are unable to favor this movement [Zionism]. We cannot prevent the Jews from going to Jerusalem—but we could never sanction it. The ground of Jerusalem, if it were not always sacred, has been sanctified by the life of Jesus Christ. As the head of the Church, I cannot answer you otherwise. The Jews have not recognized Our Lord; therefore we cannot recognize the Jewish people."

And the majority of Jews in Israel are grossly immoral. It is said that Tel Aviv is the LGBT capital of the world. For these sins alone, the Jews have no right from God to possess Israel.

Some may ask, If God forbade apostate Jews to repossess and own Israel since the destruction of the Temple in 70 A.D. and has thwarted any such attempts, then how come the apostate Jews on May 14th 1948 repossessed Israel and have owned it until this day? Does this mean that God is now blessing apostate Jews and their Christ-denying State of Israel? No, it does not, because Jesus said in Mark 13:14 that a time would come "when you shall see the abomination of desolation standing where it ought not (he that readeth let him understand); then let them that are in Judea flee unto the mountains." In the last part of this verse, Jesus tells us that this abomination of desolation is located in Israel in Judea and says it ought not be there. Hence in the eyes of God, the apostate Jews' repossession of Israel is illegal because it is in a place where it ought not be.

In 2 Thessalonians 2:2-3 St. Paul also tells us that the "man of sin," the "son of perdition," who is the Antichrist, will rule from the rebuilt Temple in Jerusalem. He says, "Let no man deceive you by any means for unless there come a revolt first and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposeth and is lifted up above all that is called God or that is worshipped so that he sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself as if he were God."

Jesus also tells us in Apocalypse, Chapter 11, that the ultimate abomination of desolation is the Antichrist who will reside in Jerusalem, where the two witnesses will be murdered. Jesus says, "I will give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth... When they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the abyss shall make war against them and shall overcome them and kill them. And their bodies shall lie in the streets of the great city, which is called spiritually, Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord also was crucified." Therefore the two witnesses will be murdered by the Antichrist in the great city Jerusalem where Jesus was crucified.

Consequently, anyone (such as Christian Zionists) who supports or promotes the apostate Jews and apostate Israel is doing the work of the Devil and the Antichrist and thus is not of God.

Keep in mind that the next Holy Jerusalem will not be built by anyone on earth but will come down from heaven: "And I John saw the holy city, the New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband." (Apoc. 21:2)

In the end, Catholic Jews (such as Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) will possess Israel forever in the everlasting earthly paradise Christ will create upon his Second Coming.

I want to say loud and clear that I do not hate Jews. If I did, I would hate myself, as I am a Catholic Jew. I love all men and thus love all Jews. And God loves the Jewish race the most for the sake of their fathers who were faithful to the Old Covenant. St. Paul says, "As concerning the gospel, indeed, they are enemies for your sake; but as touching the election, they are most dear for the sake of the fathers." (Rom. 11:28) But do not fall into the trap of thinking that all Jews are God's chosen people because God loves the Jewish race. If that were true, then men of all races are God's chosen people because God also loves them. Only Christians are God's chosen people, both Jewish and Gentile Christians.

God, then, wills with a most special love that the Jews should convert and be saved. That is precisely why of all people, the Jews must first-and-foremost be targeted for conversion. And it was prophesied that a remnant of Jews will convert in these final days when God lifts the veil of darkness from them. "But their senses were made dull. For until this present day the selfsame veil in the reading of the Old Testament remaineth not taken away (because in Christ it is made void). But even until this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart. But when they shall be converted to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away." (2 Cor. 3:14-16) "And many days shall pass in Israel without the true God, and without a priest a teacher, and without the law." (2 Par. 15:3) "And after this the children of Israel shall return and shall seek the Lord their God and David their king: and they shall fear the Lord and his goodness in the last days." (Osee 3:4-5) "Behold, I will send you Elias, the prophet, before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord. And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers." (Mala. 4:5-6)

Therefore, if you really loved apostate Jews, you would condemn them and apostate Israel and call them to conversion. If not, you are giving them a false confidence that they are pleasing to God and thus are actually propelling them to hell! "And they that call this people blessed shall cause them to err; and they that are called blessed, shall be thrown down headlong." (Isa. 9:16)
