For the Year of Our Lord
2022

The kings of Tharsis and the islands shall offer presents; the kings of the Arabians and of Saba shall bring gifts. And all kings of the earth shall adore him, all nations shall serve him. He shall spare the poor and needy, and he shall save the souls of the poor. He shall redeem their souls from usuries and iniquity,
and their names shall be honourable in his sight. And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Arabia; for him they shall always adore, they shall bless him all the day.

Act of Consecration to Saint Joseph

O blessed Saint Joseph,
I consecrate myself to thy honor and give myself to thee that thou mayest always be my father, my protector, and my guide in the way of salvation. Obtain for me a great purity of heart and a fervent love of the interior life.
After thy example may I do all my actions for the greater glory of God, in union with the Divine Heart of Jesus and the Immaculate Heart of Mary.
And do thou, O blessed Saint Joseph, pray for me that I may share in the peace and joy of thy holy death.

Amen.

And the women that were come with him from Galilee, following after, saw the sepulchre and how his body was laid. And returning they prepared spices and ointments. . . And on the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled back from the sepulchre. And going in they found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass as they were astonished in their mind at this, behold, two men stood by them in shining apparel. And as they were afraid and bowed down their countenance towards the ground, they said unto them: Why seek you the living with the dead? He is not here, but is risen. Remember how he spoke unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying: The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his words. And going back from the sepulchre, they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. And it was Mary Magdalen and Joanna and Mary of James, and the other women that were with them, who told these things to the apostles.

Memorare to the Blessed Virgin Mary

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins [, my Mother]. To thee I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

The Magnificat

Luke 1, 46-55

(Canticle of the Blessed Virgin Mary)

My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior

Because he hath regarded the humility of his handmaid. For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed

Because he that is mighty hath done great things to me; and holy is his name.

And his mercy is from generation unto generation to them that fear him.

He hath showed might in his arm, he hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat and hath exalted the humble.

He hath filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich he hath sent away empty.

He hath received Israel his servant, being mindful of his mercy, as he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed forever.

Prayer to Saint Joachim, Father of the Blessed Virgin Mary

O great and glorious Patriarch Saint Joachim, what joy is mine when I consider that thou wast chosen among all God's holy ones to assist in the fulfillment of the mysteries of God and to enrich us with the great Mother of God, Mary most holy! By this singular privilege thou hast become most powerful with both the Mother and her Son and thus art able to obtain for us the graces we need. With great confidence I have recourse to thy mighty protection and commend to thee all my needs, both spiritual and temporal. Especially do I entrust to thy keeping the particular favor that I desire and look for from thy fatherly intercession. And since thou wast a perfect pattern of the interior life, obtain for me the grace of interior recollection and a spirit of detachment from the passing goods of this life, together with a lively and enduring love for Jesus and Mary. Obtain for me, in like manner, a sincere devotion and obedience to Holy Church and to the Papacy so that I may live and die in faith, hope, and perfect charity, ever invoking the holy names of Jesus and Mary. Amen.

It is truly worthy and just, right and profitable unto salvation, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, eternal God, that on the feast of the Maternity of the blessed Mary ever virgin we should praise, bless, and proclaim Thee. For she conceived Thy only-begotten Son by the overshadowing of the Holy Spirit and, losing not the glory of her virginity, gave forth to the world the everlasting light, Jesus Christ our Lord. Through whom Thy majesty the angels praise, the dominations adore, the powers tremble; and the heavens and the heavenly virtues and the blessed seraphim join together in celebration and exultation, with whom, we pray Thee, join our voices also while we say with lowly praise: Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of Thy glory. Hosanna in the highest! Blessed is He who cometh in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest!

(The Preface of the Blessed Virgin Mary)

For a Child is born to us,

Wonderful, Counsellor, God the Mighty,
the Father of the world to come,
the Prince of Peace.

His empire shall be multiplied,
and there shall be no end of peace:
he shall sit upon the throne of David,
and upon his kingdom; to establish it and strengthen it with judgment
and with justice,
from henceforth and for ever.

On Mary's Little Remnant Catholic Calendar

Mary's Little Remnant (MLR) is a Catholic lay order, formed and ruled by me, Richard Joseph Michael Ibranyi (RJMI), but clerics can also belong to it. It appeals to a future pope to confirm the order. The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant is for members of Mary's Little Remnant but is recommended for all catechumens, laymen, and clerics not under a rule of their own. It is stricter in some parts than the Catholic Church's universal rule for Catholics. (See The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.)

The current nominal-Catholic universal calendar is null and void because apostate antipopes promulgated it. (See RJMI book Non-Catholics Cannot Hold Offices in the Catholic Church.) The universal calendar from the time of the last true pope, Honorius II (d. 1130), is still in force. However, I have not yet discovered a calendar from that time period. But even if I do, I would still have the right to make a calendar for my religious order, just as the Benedictines and the Uniate Eastern Church had the right to make their own calendars. Of course, this requires papal approval if possible. When it is not possible to get papal approval and there is good reason to revise the calendar, the law of epikeia allows me to revise the calendar for my religious order. In emergency situations, epikeia allows exemptions from non-dogmatic laws without the need of confirmation or a dispensation from a competent authority. See RJMI book Exemptions from the Law. The emergency situation is that the current null-and-void calendar contains the following problems:

1. It contains anti-saints;
2. It contains irreverent rankings of some holy things;
3. It contains out-of-sequence events (which undermines the Biblical record of these events);
4. It contains hardly any Old Testament saints;
5. It abolished the Lenten and Advent fasts;
6. It does not contain some New Testament era saints that should be honored;
7. It contains contradictions to its own laws in writing and practice;
8. It contains too many exceptions.

It is my hope that the next pope will confirm this calendar as the universal calendar. Until then, I can only bind my religious order to it. I can only recommend that Catholics who do not belong to my order follow it.

However, all Catholics are bound to observe the things in this calendar that are also contained in the universal calendar that was in force in the days of Honorius II. Even though I do not have that calendar, I used the information I do have that is closest to that time as the rule for what all Catholics are bound to observe and I have noted it in these rules.

The pre- and post-1960 ranking system for feasts and other days in the liturgical year are null and void because they were promulgated by apostate antipopes. The pre-1960 system (as contained in 1950's missals) was a mess, contradicted itself in several places, and contained the eight problems mentioned previously. The ranking system promulgated by Apostate Antipope John XXIII in 1960 is better but included too many exceptions and contains the same eight problems. Hence my ranking system is based mostly upon the post-1960 ranking system with revisions to it. For a detailed explanation of all the revisions and additions to the calendar and the rubrics, see RJMI book Revisions to the Roman Missal and Calendar.

List of Days of Obligation for Members of MLR

The current null-and-void calendar contains too few days of obligation. For example, in the fourth century the Lord's Day and the major feast days of Christmas, Epiphany, and Resurrection Day, and the seven days which preceded and followed each feast were days of obligation, as well as several other days. A 1938 Roman Breviary lists the current holy days of obligation including some formerly kept. There were 35 days plus 52 Lord's Days that were days of obligation, which equals 87 days of the year. And that does not include non-universal days of obligation for specific dioceses and religious orders.

The days of obligation on the MLR Calendar are shaded in dark gray; and first, second, and third class feast days that are not days of obligation are shaded in light gray. While members of MLR believe the doctrines of the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption, these doctrines have not yet been infallibly defined. Apostate Antipopes Pius IX in 1854 and Pius XII in 1950 attempted to infallibly define them, but their acts were null and void. However, even before these attempted infallible definitions, these feasts were observed by certain religious orders and in certain dioceses. Hence MLR observes them as feast days of obligation.

What follows is the MLR Calendar's list of days of obligation which all of its members are bound to observe. The days of obligation that are always on the Lord's Day are marked with a cross (†).

- |   |  |

| 12. Maundy Day, Good 6th Weekday, and Holy 7th Weekday (1DO)  |  |
| 13. † Resurrection Day (1DO/1oct/1LD), and the two days following (1DO/1oct)  |  |
| 14. Solemnity of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, on the third 4th Weekday after Resurrection Day (3DO/2oct)             |  |
| 15. Ascension of Our Lord, on the 40th day after Resurrection Day inclusive (1DO/2oct)  |  |
| 16. † Pentecost Day (1DO/1oct/1LD), on the 50th day after Resurrection Day inclusive, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)         |  |

It is recommended that Catholics take off from work, if possible, the week after Christmas, Trinity Day, Resurrection Day, Pentecost Day, and the Feast of God the Father and thus not just the two days that follow the feast day. For exceptions for Catholics living in non-Catholic nations and for work that can be done on days of obligation, see RJMI article The Law of No Unnecessary Work on the Lord's Day.

Prayer Notations for Mary's Little Remnant

This calendar contains notations as a reminder for novenas and other special prayers that are prayed by Mary's Little Remnant. On the beginning day of the novenas and the Thirty-Day Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory, a (1) is listed, followed by a (2) the next day, etc., to show the day for the particular novena or Thirty-Day Prayer for the Souls in Purgatory. Other Catholics who do not belong to Mary's Little Remnant are not bound to these special prayers. For the prayer schedule for MLR, see The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.

Rules for Abstinence and Fasting

-  Abstinence: No meat, meat gravy, soup made from meat, or lard may be taken. The 6th weekday is a day of abstinence for all Catholics unless it is also a feast day of obligation.
- Total Fast: No food or drink (including water).
- Liquid Fast: No solid food is allowed.
- Regular Fast: One meal is allowed.
- Light Fast: Two meals are allowed.
- Eucharistic Fast: No food or drink (except water) may be taken from three hours before Holy Communion until 15 minutes after.
- Alcohol and dessert: The general rule for the universal Church does not ban alcohol or dessert on fasting days. However, some religious orders, such as MLR, ban alcohol or dessert on some fasting days. The MLR Rule does not allow alcohol or dessert on days of regular fast but allows alcohol and one dessert on days of light fast.
- No eating between meals on fasting days: Eating outside of the allowed meal or meals on fasting days is not permitted. Water, coffee, tea, fruit juices, and sodas are allowed. Milk or pureed juices (such as tomato juice, V8, or smoothies) are not allowed outside of the meal except for milk or cream in coffee or tea.

For necessary information regarding penitential and non-penitential days (such as exemptions, reductions, or transferrals), see the Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.
