JESUS said to them:

It is not for you to know the time or moments which the Father hath put in His own power.

But you shall receive the power of the Holy Spirit coming upon you, and you shall be witnesses unto me in Jerusalem,
and in all Judea, and Samaria,
and even to the uttermost part of the earth.

And when He had said these things
while they looked on, He was raised up; and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

AND Elizabeth cried out
with a loud voice and said:
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For behold as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded
in my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy.

The Eight Beatitudes

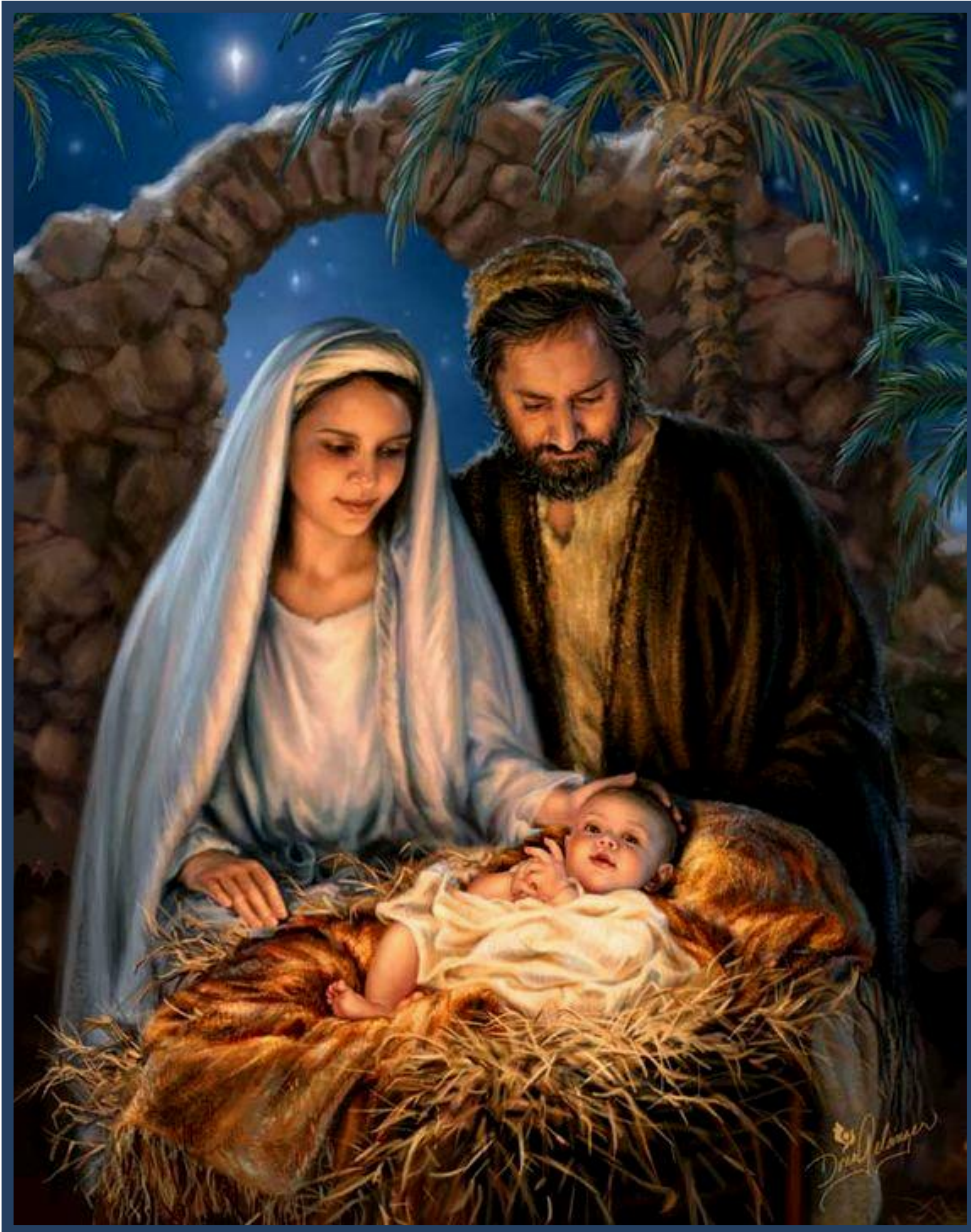

(Matthew 5:2-10)

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are the meek: for they shall possess the land.
Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after justice: for they shall have their fill.
Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart: for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.
Blessed are they that suffer persecution for justice' sake:
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

On Mary's Little Remnant Catholic Calendar

The things listed in this calendar are mandatory for all Catholics who do not belong to a religious order, except for the things that are in brackets [], as they are only for members of Mary's Little Remnant.

Mary's Little Remnant (MLR) is a Catholic lay order, formed and ruled by me, Richard Joseph Michael Ibranyi (RJMI), but clerics can also belong to it. It appeals to a future pope to confirm the order. It is stricter in some parts than the Catholic Church's universal rule for Catholics. (See The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.)

The current nominal-Catholic universal calendar is null and void because apostate antipopes promulgated it. (See RJMI book Non-Catholics Cannot Hold Offices in the Catholic Church.) The universal calendar from the time of the last true pope, Honorius II (d. 1130), is still in force. However, I have not yet discovered a calendar from that time period. But even if I do, I would still have the right to make a calendar for my religious order, just as the Benedictines and the Uniate Eastern Church had the right to make their own calendars. Of course, this requires papal approval if possible. When it is not possible to get papal approval and there is good reason to revise the calendar, the law of epikeia allows me to revise the calendar for my religious order. In emergency situations, epikeia allows exemptions from non-dogmatic laws without the need of confirmation or a dispensation from a competent authority. See RJMI book Exemptions from the Law. The emergency situation is that the current null-and-void calendar contains the following problems:

1. It contains anti-saints;
2. It contains irreverent rankings of some holy things;
3. It contains out-of-sequence events (which undermines the Biblical record of these events);
4. It contains hardly any Old Testament saints and feasts;
5. It abolished the Lenten and Advent fasts;
6. It does not contain some New Testament era saints that should be honored;
7. It contains contradictions to its own laws in writing and practice;
8. It contains too many exceptions.

It is my hope that the next pope will confirm this calendar as the universal calendar. Until then, I can only bind my religious order to it. I can only recommend that Catholics who do not belong to my order follow it.

However, all Catholics are bound to observe the things in this calendar that are also contained in the universal calendar that was in force in the days of Honorius II. Even though I do not have that calendar, I used the information I do have that is closest to that time as the rule for what all Catholics are bound to observe and I have noted it in these rules.

The pre- and post-1960 ranking system for feasts and other days in the liturgical year are null and void because they were promulgated by apostate antipopes. The pre-1960 system (as contained in 1950's missals) was a mess, contradicted itself in several places, and contained the eight problems mentioned previously. The ranking system promulgated by Apostate Antipope John XXIII in 1960 is better but included too many exceptions and contains the same eight problems. Hence my ranking system is based mostly upon the post-1960 ranking system with revisions to it. For a detailed explanation of all the revisions and additions to the calendar and the rubrics, see RJMI book Revisions to the Roman Missal and Calendar. As of this calendar, this book is not yet available.

List of Days of Obligation for Members of MLR

The current null-and-void calendar contains too few days of obligation. For example, in the fourth century the Lord's Day and the major feast days of Christmas, Epiphany, and Resurrection Day, and the seven days which preceded and followed each these three feasts were days of obligation, as well as several other days. A 1938 Roman Breviary lists the current holy days of obligation including some formerly kept. There were 35 days plus 52 Lord's Days that were days of obligation, which equals 87 days of the year. And that does not include non-universal days of obligation for specific dioceses and religious orders.

The days of obligation on the MLR Calendar are shaded in blue and red; and first, second, and third class feast days that are not days of obligation are shaded in light gray; and fourth class feast days are not shaded. While members of MLR believe the doctrines of the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption, these doctrines have not yet been infallibly defined. Apostate Antipopes Pius IX in 1854 and Pius XII in 1950 attempted to infallibly define them, but their acts were null and void. However, even before these attempted infallible definitions, these feasts were observed by certain religious orders and in certain dioceses. Hence MLR observes them as feast days of obligation.

What follows is the MLR Calendar's list of days of obligation which all of its members are bound to observe. The days of obligation that are always on the Lord's Day are marked with a cross (†).

1. † The Lord's Day, on the 1st day of the week (1LD or 2LD)
2. Circumcision of Our Lord/Octave Day of Christmas, on 1/1 (1DO/1oct)
3. Presentation of Jesus/Purification of Mary, on 1/4 (1DO)
4. Epiphany of Our Lord, on 1/6 (1DO/2oct)
5. The Holy Innocents, on 1/7 (3DO/2oct)
6. † The Holy Family/First Lord's Day after Epiphany (1DO/2LD)
7. Solemnity of the Apostles, on the 4th Weekday after the Second Lord's Day after Epiphany (3DO)
8. † Trinity Day (1DO/1oct/1LD), on the Lord's Day before the Last Lord's Day after Epiphany, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)
9. Ash Day (3DO/1fer)
10. The Annunciation & Incarnation, on 3/25 (1DO)
11. † Palm Day (1DO/1LD)
12. Maundy Day, Good 6th Weekday, and Holy 7th Weekday (1DO)
13. † Resurrection Day (1DO/1oct/1LD), and the two days following (1DO/1oct)
14. Solemnity of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, on the third 4th Weekday after Resurrection Day (3DO/2oct)
15. Ascension of Our Lord, on the 40th day after Resurrection Day inclusive (1DO/2oct)
17. Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on 8/15 (2DO/2oct)
18. † Coronation and Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the Lord's Day after the Assumption (2DO)
19. Holy Angels' Day, on 10/2 (3DO/2oct)
20. All Saints' Day, on 11/1 (3&4DO/2oct)
21. † Feast of God the Father (1DO/1oct/1LD), on the second Lord's Day before the Last Lord's Day after Pentecost, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)
22. Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on 12/8 (2DO/2oct)
23. Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ: Christmas Day (1DO/1oct), on 12/25, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)

It is recommended that Catholics take off from work, if possible, the week after Christmas, Trinity Day, Resurrection Day, Pentecost Day, and the Feast of God the Father and thus not just the two days that follow the feast day. For exceptions for Catholics living in non-Catholic nations and for work that can be done on days of obligation, see RJMI article The Law of No Unnecessary Work on the Lord's Day.

Old Testament Feast Days

While the Old Testament rituals and ceremonies ended and were replaced by the New Covenant rituals and ceremonies as instituted by the Catholic Church, the Old Testament festival days should still be remembered and commemorated, just as the Old Testament saints, such as (Abraham, Moses, Job, and the Machabees) should be remembered and commemorated. Hence I added three Old Testament Feast Days to the calendar. Passover is already on the calendar on Maundy Day:

- 1) In honor of Queen Esther's Saving of the Jews from Aman (Purim) on 2/3;
2) Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkoth) The 4th 5th weekday in the 11th month (Thanksgiving in the USA): 3)Rededication of the Temple by the Machabees (Hanukkah) on 12/14

Prayer Notations for Mary's Little Remnant

This calendar contains notations as a reminder for novenas that are prayed by Mary's Little Remnant. On the beginning day of the novena, a (1) is listed, followed by a (2) the next day, etc., to show the day for the particular novena. Other Catholics who do not belong to Mary's Little Remnant are not bound to these special prayers. For the prayer schedule for MLR, see The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.
