By Mary's Little Remnant

For the Year of Our Lord
2026

And behold the star which they [the wise men] had seen in the east went before them until it came and stood over where the child was.

And seeing the star they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And entering into the house, they found the child with Mary his mother. And falling down they adored him.

And opening their treasures, they offered him gifts, gold, frankincense, and myrrh.
(Matthew 2:9-11)

Dear St. Joseph, adopt us as thy children and take charge of our salvation. Watch over us day and night, preserve us from occasions of sin, and obtain for us purity of soul and body and the spirit of prayer. Through thy intercession with Jesus, grant us a spirit of sacrifice, humility, and self-denial. Obtain for us a burning love for Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and a sweet, tender love for Mary, our Mother. St. Joseph, be with us in life, be with us in death, and obtain for us a favorable judgment from Jesus, our merciful Savior.
Amen.

And behold, two of them went the same day to a town which was sixty furlongs from Jerusalem named Emmaus. And it came to pass that while they talked and reasoned with themselves, Jesus himself also drawing near, went with them. But their eyes were held that they should not know him. And he said to them: What are these discourses that you hold one with another as you walk and are sad? Then he said to them: O foolish and slow of heart to believe in all things which the prophets have spoken. Ought not Christ to have suffered these things and so to enter into his glory? And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he expounded to them in all the scriptures the things that were concerning him. (Luke 24)

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

St. John the Baptist, martyr invincible, for the honor of God and the salvation of souls thou didst with firmness and constancy withstand the impiety of Herod, even at the cost of thine own life, and didst rebuke him openly for his wicked life and wicked deeds.
By thy prayers obtain for us a heart, brave and generous, in order that we may die for Christ if we must, and the grace to overcome all human respect and openly profess our faith in loyal obedience to the teachings of Jesus Christ, our divine Master.

Then Josue spoke to the Lord in the day that he delivered the Amorrhite into the power of the children of Israel, and he said before them: Move not, O sun, toward Gabaon, nor thou, O moon, toward the valley of Ajalon. And the sun and the moon stood still till the people revenged themselves of their enemies. (Josue 10:12-13)

For who is God but the Lord? Or who is God but our God, the Catholic God? God who hath girt me with strength and made my way blameless, who hath made my feet like the feet of harts and who setteth me upon high places, who teacheth my hands to war. And thou hast made my arms like a brazen bow. And thou hast given me the protection of thy salvation, and thy right hand hath held me up... I will pursue after my enemies and overtake them, and I will not turn again till they are consumed. I will break them, and they shall not be able to stand. (Psalm 17:32-36, 38-39)

O eternal and almighty God the Father, the anchor of the most holy Trinity, who eternally begot thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ; and from thy Son and thee the Holy Spirit proceeds; all creation trembles and bows down before thee. Grant us all the graces and other helps we need in order to know, fear, love, worship, and obey thee as our ultimate Father so that our souls may be saved, and we may see thy most holy and adorable face forever and ever in the kingdom of thy glory. This we ask through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who with thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit liveth and reigneth forever and ever. Amen.

On Mary's Little Remnant Catholic Calendar

The things listed in this calendar are mandatory for all Catholics who do not belong to a religious order, except for the things that are in brackets [], as they are for members of Mary's Little Remnant, although Catholics may do them also.

Mary's Little Remnant (MLR) is a Catholic lay order, formed and ruled by Richard Joseph Michael Ibranyi (RJMI), but clerics can also belong to it. It appeals to a future pope to confirm the order. It is stricter in some parts than the Catholic Church's universal rule for Catholics. (See The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.)

The current nominal-Catholic universal calendar is null-and-void because apostate antipopes promulgated it. (See RJMI book Non-Catholics Cannot Hold Offices in the Catholic Church.) The universal calendar from the time of the last true pope, Honorius II (d. 1130), is still in force. However, I have not yet discovered a calendar from that time period. But even if I do, I would still have the right to make a calendar for my religious order, just as the Benedictines and the Uniate Eastern Church had the right to make their own calendars. Of course, this requires papal approval if possible. When it is not possible to get papal approval and there is good reason to revise the calendar, the law of epikeia allows me to revise the calendar for my religious order. In emergency situations, epikeia allows exemptions from non-dogmatic laws without the need of confirmation or a dispensation from a competent authority. (See RJMI book Exemptions from the Law.) The emergency situation is that the current null-and-void calendar contains the following problems:

1. It contains anti-saints;
2. It contains irreverent rankings of some holy things;
3. It contains out-of-sequence events (which undermines the Biblical record of these events);
4. It contains hardly any Old Testament saints and feasts;
5. It abolished the Lenten and Advent fasts;
6. It does not contain some New Testament era saints that should be honored;
7. It contains contradictions to its own laws in writing and practice;
8. It contains too many exceptions.

It is my hope that the next pope will confirm this calendar as the universal calendar. Until then, I can only bind my religious order to it. I can only recommend that Catholics who do not belong to my order follow it.

However, all Catholics are bound to observe the things in this calendar that are also contained in the universal calendar that was in force in the days of Honorius II. Even though I do not have that calendar, I used the information I do have that is closest to that time as the rule for what all Catholics are bound to observe and I have noted it in these rules.

The pre- and post-1960 ranking system for feasts and other days in the liturgical year are null-and-void because they were promulgated by apostate antipopes. The pre-1960 system (as contained in 1950's missals) was a mess, contradicted itself in several places, and contained the eight problems mentioned previously. The ranking system promulgated by Apostate Antipope John XXIII in 1960 is better but included too many exceptions and contains the same eight problems. Hence my ranking system is based mostly upon the post-1960 ranking system with revisions to it. For a detailed explanation of all the revisions and additions to the calendar and the rubrics, see RJMI book Revisions to the Roman Missal and Calendar. As of this calendar, this book is not yet available.

List of Days of Obligation for Members of MLR

The current null-and-void calendar contains too few days of obligation. For example, in the fourth century the Lord's Day and the major feast days of Christmas, Epiphany, and Resurrection Day, and the seven days which preceded and followed each these three feasts were days of obligation, as well as several other days. A 1938 Roman Breviary lists the current holy days of obligation including some formerly kept. There were 35 days plus 52 Lord's Days that were days of obligation, which equals 87 days of the year. And that does not include non-universal days of obligation for specific dioceses and religious orders. The days of obligation on the MLR Calendar are shaded in yellow and purple. The non-holy-day-of-obligation feast days of the Blessed Virgin Mary are shaded in blue. While members of MLR believe the doctrines of the Immaculate Conception and the Assumption, these doctrines have not yet been infallibly defined. Apostate Antipopes Pius IX in 1854 and Pius XII in 1950 attempted to infallibly define them, but their acts were null-and-void. However, even before these attempted infallible definitions, these feasts were observed by certain religious orders and in certain dioceses. Hence MLR observes them as feast days of obligation.

What follows is the MLR Calendar's list of days of obligation which all of its members are bound to observe. The days of obligation that are always on the Lord's Day are marked with a cross (†).

1. † The Lord's Day, on the 1st day of the week (1LD or 2LD)
2. Circumcision of Our Lord/Octave Day of Christmas, on 1/1 (1DO/1oct)
3. Presentation of Jesus/Purification of Mary, on 1/4 (1DO)
4. Epiphany of Our Lord, on 1/6 (1DO/2oct)
5. The Holy Innocents, on 1/7 (3f)
6. † The Holy Family/First Lord's Day after Epiphany (1DO/2LD)
7. Solemnity of the Apostles, on the 4th Weekday after the Second Lord's Day after Epiphany (3DO)
8. † Trinity Day (1DO/1oct/1LD), on the Lord's Day before the Last Lord's Day after Epiphany, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)
9. Ash Day (3DO/1fer)
10. Queen Esther's Saving of the Jews from Aman (Purim), 2/26 (3DO)
11. The Annunciation & Incarnation, on 3/25 (1DO)
12. † Palm Day (1DO/1LD)
13. Maundy Day, Good 6th Weekday, and Holy 7th Weekday (1DO)
14. † Resurrection Day (1DO/1oct/1LD), and the two days following (1DO/1oct)
15. Solemnity of St. Joseph, Patron of the Universal Church, on the third 4th Weekday after Resurrection Day (3DO/2oct)
16. Ascension of Our Lord, on the 40th day after Resurrection Day inclusive (1DO/2oct)
17. Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on 8/15 (2DO/2oct)
18. † Coronation and Queenship of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the Lord's Day after the Assumption (2DO)
19. Holy Angels' Day, on 10/2 (3DO/2oct)
20. All Saints' Day, on 11/1 (3&4DO/2oct)
21. † Feast of God the Father (1DO/1oct/1LD), on the second Lord's Day before the Last Lord's Day after Pentecost, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)
22. Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, on 12/8 (2DO/2oct)
23. Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ: Christmas Day (1DO/1oct), on 12/25, and the two days following (1DO/1oct)

It is recommended that Catholics take off from work, if possible, the week after Christmas, Trinity Day, Resurrection Day, Pentecost Day, and the Feast of God the Father and thus not just the two days that follow the feast day. For exceptions for Catholics living in non-Catholic nations and for work that can be done on days of obligation, see RJMI article The Law of No Unnecessary Work on the Lord's Day.

Old Testament Feast Days

While the Old Testament rituals and ceremonies ended and were replaced by the New Covenant rituals and ceremonies as instituted by the Catholic Church, the Old Testament festival days should still be remembered and commemorated, just as the Old Testament saints, such as (Abraham, Moses, Job, and the Machabees) should be remembered and commemorated. Hence I added three Old Testament Feast Days to the calendar. Passover is already on the calendar on Maundy Day:

- 1) In honor of Queen Esther's Saving of the Jews from Aman (Purim) on 2/3;
- 2) Feast of Tabernacles (Sukkoth) The 4th 5th weekday in the 11th month;
- 3) Rededication of the Temple by the Machabees (Hanukkah) on 12/14

Prayer Notations for Mary's Little Remnant

This calendar contains notations as a reminder for novenas that are prayed by Mary's Little Remnant. On the beginning day of the novena, a [1] is listed, followed by a [2] the next day, etc., to show the day for the particular novena. Other Catholics who do not belong to Mary's Little Remnant are not bound to these special prayers. For the prayer schedule for MLR, see The Rule of Mary's Little Remnant.
